CITY ITEMS.

The Carter Troupe is coming.

Clear the track for Little Mac.

The City Council met last night and transacted considerable business.

The trial of H. H. Hood for being a Son of Liberty began yesterday before a Military Commission.

The buildings on the southeast corner of Meridian and Maryland streets are being torn away, and they will be replaced by magnificent four stories.

McDonald and Manson. Let Morton and Baker shoulder a musket. Let them go where they have sent many of our brave Indiana boys to bleed and die.

At the Metropolitan to-night Miss Salie St. Clair appears again. No more gifted lady has ever appeared on our boards. She is, too, as beautiful as she is accomplished.

The office of the Provost Marshal for this district has been removed to North Pennsylvania street, two squares north of the Post Office, in the late residence of Daniel Tandy.

To-morrow the draft will take place for the townships of Perry, Pike, Washington and Wayne at the office of the Provost Marshal, North Pennsylvania street. These drawings are open to the public.

If you want good and cheap groceries and pure wines and liquors, for family use or otherwise, go to Redmond & McNamara, No. 28 South Illinois street. They have but one price.

J. J. Lynch, the energetic dry goods merchant, proprietor of the Union Dry Goods Store has left for New York to purchase a stock of fall and winter goods, as well as a general assortment of fashionable dress goods for the ladies.

Not QUANTRELL. Mr. Burgess, the gentleman arrested at the Bates House some ten days ago on suspicion of being the notorious Quantrell, was yesterday evening released, and left for St. Louis. The men who came from Kansas to identify him failed to do so, and hence, after some ten days on "hard tack and sowbills," he goes on his way rejoicing.

A CARD.

In an advertisement in this morning's paper to the "journeymen boot and shoe makers of Indiana," signed "The Committee," great injustice is done to our establishment. We signed the bill when it was brought to us, with the remark that the wages were small enough. We "acted as men," and paid the full amount of the bill, and will continue to do so. Our workmen have not quit work, and will not. I therefore call on the committee to "act as men," and make the necessary correction.

FOREMAN FOR A. LINT.

Just opened by BAKER & MOYER—A very large stock of ladies' gentlemen's misses' and children's furs, consisting of Canada, American and French fables, German fables, real ermine, very beautiful; plain and spotted squirrel, river mink—colored and natural, made up in all the most fashionable styles, cloaks and mantillas, three-quarter, half and quarter caps, talmas, collars—tipped and plain, for gents, otter, beaver nutria, seal and rat collars, mufflers, gauntlets, gloves, &c.

The fur trade is a legitimate branch of our business, the public may rest assured that what we offer has been selected with care and judgment, and will be sold as low as the lowest.

HEADQUARTERS DEPT. OF INDIANA.

General Order No. 11.

I, Maj. C. J. Kipp, Surgeon U. S. Vols., is hereby announced as Chief of the Board of Inspectors for the examination of recruits, substitutes and drafted men at this Headquarters, and will be respected and obeyed accordingly.

Acting Assistant Surgeon E. S. Newcomer and S. C. Dove, are hereby announced as members of the Board of Inspectors for the examination of recruits, substitutes and drafted men at this Headquarters, and will be respected accordingly.

By command of Brig. Gen. Carrington,
M. H. BAILLACHE,
Captain and A. A. G.

A Card from the Sheriff of Shelby County.

Mr. Editor:—I learn that Gen. Elliott and "Bill" Wallace, of your place, are reporting that they succeeded in converting the Sheriff of Shelby county, into one of their "Buckeye" friends, along with a crowd of our Shelbyville "round-eyes."

Now, I will just say, once for all, that the whole story is a funny and malicious falsehood, made out of whole cloth, and worthy only of the basest and most malicious of two such clowns as Elliott and Wallace. I intend to support the entire Democratic National State and County tickets, and believe that every legal citizen who has had sense enough to render him an account, will do the same.

Let the traitors south support Davis, and the traitors north support Lincoln.

HENRY DORR,
Sheriff Shelby County, Ind.

A GRAND OVERTURE TO THE SOLDIERS.

The Reception Yesterday.

The reception of the 6th, 7th and 36th regiments yesterday was one of the most imposing scenes we have ever witnessed. Long before the hour appointed for the ceremonies, a vast crowd, composed largely of ladies, had assembled in the State House Park; the streets in the vicinity were thronged, and, in the neighborhood of the Soldiers' Home, the gathering was immense, all eager to welcome home our noble boys.

About 2 1/2 P. M., the regiments, accompanied by two bands, marched into the State House Park, the rear being closed by some half dozen poor fellows on crutches—"warriors scarred and worn, with banners bellowed and torn."

We have seldom beheld such a scene as presented itself at this moment. Gaily dressed and beautiful ladies by hundreds, most of all varieties by thousands, and in their midst, in a long double line, the bronzed and war-worn veterans whom all these thousands had collected to honor, and who have earned all the honor we can bestow upon them.

The ceremonies were opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Dewey, Chaplain of the 29th Indiana.

Gov. Morton then came forward and addressed the assembled multitude. We have not space to give even a synopsis of his remarks. He gave brief histories of each of the regiments present, pronouncing a high and deserved eulogium upon their conduct as soldiers. We give below a brief list of the toasts in which Gov. Morton participated. The ceremonies were opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Dewey, Chaplain of the 29th Indiana.

The 6th Regiment was organized at Madison, for the three months service, by Col. T. J. Crittenden, on the 25th of April, 1861, and marched to Western Virginia, where they took part in the battles of Philippi, Laurel Hill, and Carrick's Ford.

In September the regiment was reorganized for three years, and have since taken part in the battle of Shiloh, siege of Corinth, battles of Crab Orchard, Trione, Stone River, Liberty Gap, Chickasaw, Day, Chickasaw, Mountain, Dalton, Rocky Face Ridge, Reasas, Kingston, Kenesaw Mountain, Chattahoochee, and before Atlanta.

Organized in this city by Col. Dumont, on the 25th of April, for the three months service, and afterwards reorganized for three years.

The following is a list of their "little difficulties" since that time: Philippi, Laurel Hill, Carrick's Ford, Cheat Mountain, Green River, Winchester, Fort Ripley, Fort Mifflin, Thoroughfare Gap, Bull Run the second, Chancellorsville, Union, Upperville, Frontenac, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Rappahannock Station, Kelly's Ford, Mine Run, Wilderness, Cold Harbor, Petersburg, and on the Weldon Railroad.

Organized at Richmond by Col. Grose, in the "understandings" at Shiloh, Corinth, Round Mountain, Perryville, Wild Cat, Stone River, Day, Hoover's Gap, Battle Creek, Chickasaw, Lookout Mountain, Mission Ridge, first fight at Rocky Face, Tunnel Hill, second fight at Rocky Face, Kenesaw, Chattahoochee, Atlanta, Jonesboro and Lovejoy's Station.

We doubt if the whole history of war, in this or any other country, can show a record equal to that of these three regiments. No soldiers in the world have made longer marches, fought harder battles, or endured more privations than have the noble-hearted fellows recorded yesterday.

After the Governor had concluded, the crowd was addressed by Col. Grose, of the 36th; Col. Tripp, of the 6th, who leaned upon a pair of crutches, having been severely wounded at Chickasaw; Col. Grover, Col. Carey, Col. Bennett and Gen. Dumont.

Music and cheers enlivened the proceedings, and enthusiasm prevailed generally.

Social Ball.—The gas-fitters of this city have made arrangements for a splendid ball, to come off at Masonic Hall on Wednesday evening, September 20. This is the first annual ball of the Gas-fitters Union, and is for sale at a crowded with the beauty and elite of the city. Prof. Gresh furnishes the music. This is sufficient to guarantee a full attendance.
